

Galaxy III
Program Errata:

Concurrent Ssion 1 :

New Abstract :

Public Officials Training Workshop Group CC209

Presenter: Paul Lachapelle paul.lachapelle@montana.edu

This session will provide an opportunity for collaboration and information exchange among Extension personnel at all levels whose programming may include research, training, and technical assistance for local government officials. Building on the efforts of several national conference calls, this session allows the first opportunity for individuals to meet face to face to discuss common objectives and methods to achieve them.

Concurrent Session 4 :

Add :

Research and Evaluation Report
e-Government Readiness Among Iowa Counties

Presenter: Nora Ladjahasan Co-presenter: Alan Jensen to Concurrent Session 4, room 107. (this presentation was scheduled for Concurrent Session 6, CC 103).

Concurrent Session 6 :

Cancel:

Research and Evaluation Report.

A Proposal for Using GIS for Regional Citing of Concentrated Animal Feeding Operations. CC 205. Presenter Alan Jensen. Co-presenter Chris Seeger.

Add:

Research and Evaluation Report.
A Proposal for Using GIS for Regional Citing of Concentrated Animal Feeding Operations (CAFOs) in Iowa”

Presenter: Alan Jensen Co-presenter: Chris Seeger (This presentation was originally scheduled for Concurrent Session 4, CC 107)

Concurrent Session 7

New Abstract :

Leadership Northwest Missouri: A Regional Approach to Leadership

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. ESP sponsored CC201

Presenter: Beverly Maltsberger maltsbergerb@missouri.edu

Leadership Northwest Missouri is a regional leadership program. Participants come from a 19 county area and have experienced some very successful outcomes from this project. Networking and working together for economic and community improvements to the region as a whole have proven to be very beneficial to all communities.

Poster Session 2:

Added:

Poster # 101 Llama and Alpaca 4-H Project Curriculum

Presenter: Ann Mumaw mumaw.2@osu.edu

Co-Presenter: Sarah Lindley

Increased interest in llamas and alpacas in Ohio and the need to compile information on these animal into one resource resulted in the development of the "Llama and Alpaca Resource Handbook". The "Llama and Alpaca Project and Record Book" provides learning activities and record sheets for keeping important information.

Poster 102: Communicating the Public Value of 4-H

Presenter: Celeste Carmichael (cjc17@cornell.edu)

Co-Presenter: Barb Schirmer

What makes 4-H a unique youth serving organization in your community? How are you connected to land-grant resources? If we could answer these questions succinctly and intentionally, our stake-holders would understand what we do, and why we do it. Participants will review examples that communicate our niche and will develop a strategic message for their use.

Poster 103: Sustainability Through Agroforestry: Training the Trainers

Presenter: Deborah Hill (dbhill@uky.edu)

Co-presenter: Michael Gold

Holding workshops for natural resource professionals who work directly with landowners spreads the word rapidly about agroforestry techniques and their usefulness in improving both the economics and the ecological sustainability of their farm and forest resources.

Poster Session 3:

Added:

Poster # 103. Alert, Evacuate, and Shelter: Tornado Table Top Exercise.

Presenter: Carol Benesh (beneshc@unce.unr.edu)

Co-Presenters: Pam Powell, Lynette Black.

How well would your high school respond during a Tornado?
Experience a tabletop exercise where you make help make the decisions to keep your school safe. Learn how emergency responders prepare for situations before they happen. Learn about the Community Readiness Network, and how you can assist your own community. (<http://www.crn4h.org/>).

Added:

Poster #104 Building A Diverse Group One Activity At A Time

Presenter: Stephanie DeCamp sdecamp@purdue.edu

Co-presenter: Amy Webster

Building a Diverse Group One Activity at a Time helps educators facilitate groups to value differences. Understanding and valuing group dynamics and differences enables work to be more effective and efficient. Program participants will engage in a variety of initiatives to teach them how to facilitate, deliver, and debrief activities.